

Northeast Louisiana Soccer Referees Association

So you want to be a soccer referee? Here is your chance!!

What do you need to do? To become a soccer referee certified by the United States Soccer Federation, you need to take an entry-level referee training course and pass the appropriate test. The course will review the Laws of the Game as well the procedures and mechanics for officiating soccer games.

How long does the course last? The course lasts a total of 17 hours, including testing and registration, split into two sessions. You are required to attend all sessions. The course dates and times are:

Saturday	14-Aug	8:30 am - 5:00 pm	ULM AIRW 223 and field work at Brown Stadium
Saturday	21-Aug	8:30 am - 5:00 pm	ULM Airway Science Building - Room 223

How much does it cost? The course fee is $20.00. Upon successful completion of the course and test, the new referee will register with the United States Soccer Federation and pay an annual registration fee of $40.

Space is limited and can be reserved by
